Student life at Reno is what you make out of it. In order to fully enjoy your time in college, it is necessary to get out and meet new people. The campus is the best place to make new friends and experience new things. The knowledge gained in college will forever shape each student's view on romance, friendship, and life in general. College is very important and challenging, but time for fun is an absolute necessity if you plan to leave college with any kind of sanity! Whether you remember your time here as the glory years or as the time you wish you could forget, you will still hold onto the memories of your college years forever. The University organizes many activities and programs for every student to get out, get involved, and make a new foundation for themselves as independent adults. However, college is short and the opportunities to make new memories are shrinking by the day so don't waste a minute!

Life at Nevada is never boring and if you look closely you will find that there are always people...

Out & About

EXPLORING THE MANY POSSIBILITIES

Everybody brings new ideas and insights to the University of Nevada. With each difference, we as a community come closer to our goal: a more unified campus. People are free to express themselves here, trying new things and having a great time doing it. So challenge yourself and do something that is totally crazy. Enjoy yourself and the world, because it makes life a lot easier.

Time goes by fast when you're smiling

"Where everybody is happy, everybody is free. We'll keep the big door open. Everyone will come around, why are you different, why are you that way. If you don't get in line we'll lock you away."- Dave Matthews Band

A special thanks to the all ASUN Senators, ASUN Justices, ASUN Programmers and at-large members, including all administrative staff that accepted responsibility in the absence of the director.

Also, a special thanks to Sandy Rodriguez.

To the Associated Students of the University of Nevada,

It has been the most challenging, yet refreshing experience of my life to represent all of you this past year. We faced many obstacles and rose to the challenge with each of them. As a governing body, ASUN has become more and more powerful. We have created channels of communication, and opened dialogue in a variety of arenas. We have initiated changes in course curriculum to provide a more diverse education. We have negotiated an increase in ASUN's student fee distribution, and we have set standards for future officers to uphold. We have minimized the impact of increases in tuition and fees, and we have forced the administration to listen to the voice of the students.

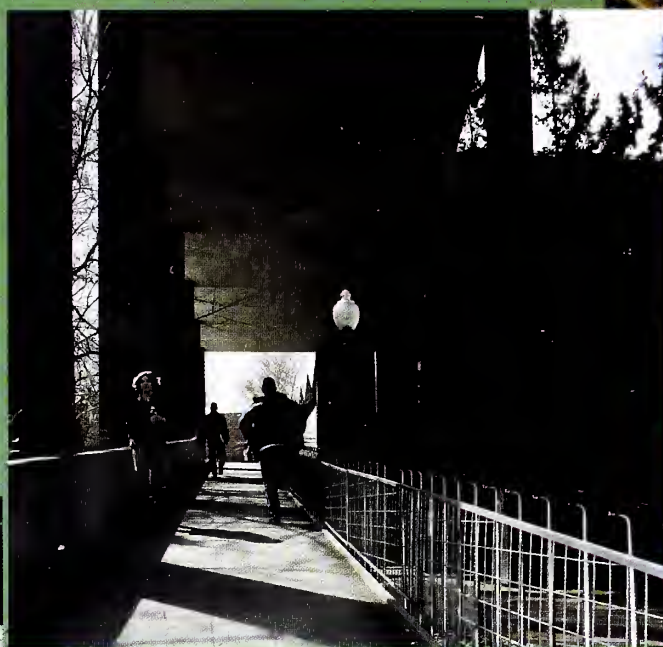

It has been a great honor and a privilege to serve as your president. I would like to conclude by congratulating all of the graduating seniors; your journey has just begun.

Respectfully,

Matthew Walden

HOMECOMING WEEK

2001

Homecoming is a traditional week-long affair, where the young and the old converge on the Nevada campus to celebrate three all-important aspects of college life: food, friends and football. Next, Homecoming answers the call of that primal urge that lies in all of us. That passion to build something, and then knock it down.

Homecoming next serves up a chance to take center stage at Wolves Frolic. Sit by the fire with your FRIENDS, eat some FOOD and see the FOOTBALL team!

With royalty being chosen, crowns being fitted, DJs playing for our delight, and a successful parade which lead us to Lawlor ... for what we were all waiting for ... the culmination of all great college things: food, friends and football collide in a euphoric, heart-pounding confrontation when the Nevada Wolf Pack prowled onto the 50 - yard line with a single intention: To bash the Bulldogs!

We're coming home

Parade first...

Tailgating second...

Third football game...

MACKAY WEEK

Mackay Week allows Nevada students to thank the Mackay family through a week long celebration. The Mackay family has contributed more than just money to our University, they have given us many traditions and rituals.

The first picture of the class of 2002

"Take back the night" is an annual program that informs students about rape.

"I speak without reservation from what I know and who I am. I do so with the understanding that all people should have the right to offer their voice to the chorus whether the result is harmony or dissonance, the world song is a colorless dirge without the differences that distinguish us, and it is that difference which should be celebrated not condemned, should any part of my words offend you, please do not close your ears to it. Just take what you can use and go on." - ANI DIFRANCO

1 in every 4 women is raped in her lifetime

1 in every 8 women is raped in college

84% of them knew their attackers

30% of college males said it would do some women good if they were raped

60% of college males & 40% of college females agreed some women deserved to be raped because of dress/behavior

A substance abuse coordinator from the university's Counseling and Testing Center is responsible for developing and sponsoring services and activities designed to positively resolve concerns about substance abuse on campus. The substance abuse program includes:

- * Prevention
- * Education
- * Awareness
- * Counseling
- * Intervention
- * Referral to treatment and rehabilitation services
- * Workshops
- * In-service trainings
- * Conferences
- * Consultation services

Educational programs about substance abuse are sponsored in conjunction with recognized student groups living on campus (residence halls, fraternities, sororities, etc.), ASUN and campus organizations. All information and services are confidential, and are offered at no charge to the university community.

Ex-Neo Nazi member speaks to UNR Students

SPEAKING OUT: Ex-Neo Nazi, T.J. Leyden, talks about his former life-style as a White Supremacist at the Jot Travis Student Auditorium Thursday night, Nov. 8, 2001.

Reformed Neo-Nazi speaks out against racism

TJ Leyden used to spend his free time cruising around his hometown of Fontana, Calif., beating people, slam dancing at punk rock concerts and passing out racial literature to school children. Now he's traded in his combat boots, heavy fists and Nazi tattoos for a microphone and the chance to educate about America's white supremacist movement.

UNR Student Masterpieces

The arts provide a wonderful outlet for personal expression. There are many different forms of creativity, like theater, music, and painting that all represent a piece of the artist. The Arts add diversity and make the University a true market place of ideas.

KEYSER SOZE

A popular local Reno band that just recently released their first CD, Keyser Soze can be seen at any local bar but don't wait because they are about to take the whole world by storm. Simply put, Keyser Soze can totally wail.

The atmosphere created at the university is serene and beautiful. Certainly the buildings and greenery add a positive feeling to the somewhat stressful learning environment. From Morrill Hall to the Lombardi Recreation and Wellness Center, the University of Nevada, Reno charms all. So this section is for everyone sitting in a cool crib pondering lush greens.

NYE AND THE "THE NEW RESIDENCE DORM"

After a year of tedious construction, the new dorm was able to open it's doors for the freshmen of 2000.

Nye and "The New Dorm" are connected by a simple hallway and differ in capacity by about 250 students! The new dorms resemble luxury suites at fancy hotels. Rooms in the New Dorm are extra large with their own bathroom, ethernet, and a laundry facility. What a palace! However, for all who have champed it out in the less than perfect Nye Hall, we salute you. Your journey will not go unrewarded.

Take a Break

The gorgeous greenery surrounding the University makes any place on campus a sweet spot to do pretty much anything. Students can read a book, study for a test, or simply relax and enjoy the warming rays of the sun. UNR has many beautiful locations for individuals to stop and have some quiet time. Like James Taylor says in Secret o' Life "Try not to try too hard it's just a lovely ride."

The Rose Garden

Getchell Library is complete with an array of on-line magazines, newspapers, and videos. Basically, the library provides students anything they need to enhance their learning experience

The new student service building and JTSU work together to provide support for all students

Congratulations to the Graduating Class of the College of Business Administration of 2002

With your degree in hand, you are now a part of the rich history of the UNR College of Business Administration.

Your dedication, diligence and hardwork made it all possible. You should be proud of this accomplishment. Please let us know of your personal and professional accomplishments as they occur.

The College has grown since its founding in 1956 because our graduates have taken the time to share their observations with us. My e-mail address is cioreed@unr.edu. And when you are ready to continue your education, contact Kambiz Raffiee, Associate Dean, at raffiee@unr.edu about our MBA Program.

Best Wishes,
Mike Reed
Dean

The weather in Reno is fickle. Some days it is dark, gloomy, cold, and miserable. However, the weather on some days is clear, sunny, temperate, and incredible. The city of Reno is placed very close to desert and mountains creating seasons that are quite extreme. Students have to defend themselves against a bitter cold for a couple of grueling months, but when winter is over students can enjoy a beautifully mild spring. On any sunny day it is very common place to see students everywhere playing frisbee or reading a good book while enjoying the sun and the spectacular world around us.

Enjoy The Sun!

Human beings need to get an average of three hours in the sun a day in order to get vital nutrients the sun provides the body. Plus the warming effect of the sun can combat the blues because they makes people feel happier. So go out and catch some rays!

Morrill Hall

TOP

Morrill Hall is the oldest building on campus. It was the first building to be constructed and classes were held there for a number of years. The site of the University of Nevada was supposed to originally be located in Elko, but later the location was moved to Reno.

The University of Nevada

A HISTORY

The University of Nevada has existed on this hill since 1885. It operated as a "University Preparatory School" in Elko for 11 years before ground on a 10 - acre site for Morrill Hall, named in honor of Vermont Senator Justin S. Morrill, author of the 1862 Land-Grant act. The building opened for higher education classes in 1887.

In the century and more since, tens of thousands have received degrees. The main campus has become nationally prominent in research. In addition to public support, it has received generous gifts from thousands of private citizens, including some whose names grace campus buildings. Their donations symbolize the commitment of the people of Nevada and the United States to the discovery and transmittal of knowledge.

Students come to college to learn some expert knowledge on their subject of choice. College was originated to be the ultimate free market place of ideas. College is a place for people who are seeking higher education as a way to better themselves through knowledge. University's classes challenge your every thought until you don't know what to believe anymore. However, the classroom challenge is not in vain. Ultimately, you will discover the college challenge has freed your mind and brought you closer to enlightenment.

& ENLIGHTENMENT ?

The College of Agriculture Biotechnology & Natural Resources

Offers a B.S., M.S., & Ph.D in the fields of Animal Technology, Veterinary Medicines, Applied Economics & Statistics, Biochemistry, and Environmental & Resource Science. The College of Agriculture's mission is to support man's capability for dealing with the environment. Central to this mission is the protection, utilization and management of the soil, water, air, plant and animal resources, the economic vitality of the agriculture industry, the development and implementation of technologies, and the quality of the environment. Of equal importance is a concern for the proper utilization of food in promoting healthier diets for man, as well as the social and economic well-being of individuals, families and society.

College of Engineering

Offers a B.S, M.S, Ph.D In Civil Engineering, Computer Science, Electrical Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, and Chemical Engineering

Mobile Engineering Education Laboratory volunteers take Engineering/Science experiments into classrooms to augment the teachers' curricula. We will provide the necessary materials to perform the experiment and provide an opportunity to the students to formulate a hypothesis and compare the hypothesis to the actual results of the experiment. New scientific educational standards will be implemented soon in the Nevada school system. By providing "hands-on" engineering experiments classrooms the Mobile Engineering Education Laboratory can augment a teachers' curriculum as well as increase students', teachers', and parents' awareness of the importance of science and engineering technology.

The College of Business Administration

Offers BA's in Accounting, CIS, eBusiness minor, Economics, Finances, Gaming Management, International Business, Logistics, Managment, and Marketing

The College of Business Administration, is housed in the Nazir Ansari Business Building, a modern six story building. Many of the classrooms have Internet connections, audio and video projections systems, and built-in podiums containing such equipment as electronic presenters, microcomputers, VCR/CD players, and connections for personal laptop computers. In an attempt to keep up with the latest technology, the college maintains several information technology laboratories available to students. These include the general-purpose microcomputer lab, the Internet development lab, the networking and telecommunications lab, and the tele-commuting lab.

The department offers courses leading to the degree of bachelor of science in geography as well as the master of science. The geography student completes a core and then consults a departmental advisor to develop an area of concentration suited to his or her needs. Study specializations include: physical geography (including environmental impact analysis), cultural and international studies, urban and regional planning (including the analysis and management of growth), cartography and computer mapping, geographic information systems (GIS) and climatology, biogeography, and the geography of water resources.

The School of Medicine

allows students to receive their doctoral in many fields including Biochemistry, Genetics, Microbiology, Pathology, Psychiatry, Radiology, and Surgery

The heart of the Family Practice Residency is the Family Medicine Center. It provides a group practice setting in which you will provide primary care to a diverse group of patients. The Family Practice Center is located on the main campus of the School of Medicine. It was constructed in 1986 and was designed specifically as a center for the training of Family Practice residents and medical students. The building is approximately 12,000 square feet and contains a large conference room, a fully equipped minor surgery room, a residents' work area and library, business and faculty offices, laboratory, x-ray and ultrasound, within the Student Health Center adjacent to the Family Medicine Center.

Human Development and Family Studies is a multi-disciplinary department in the College of Human and Community Sciences. Faculty generate knowledge through research and disseminate that knowledge through classroom instruction, community-based education programs, and publications. The Child and Family Research Center also is administered through the department and provides students with opportunities and experience in working with children and families. Strong department linkages are maintained with the Graham and Jean Sanford Center for Aging, Senator Alan Bible Center for Applied Research, Nevada Cooperative Extension, and the Nevada Agricultural Experiment Station.

Human & Community Science

Departments and Schools:
Criminal Justice Health
Ecology Human Development & Family Studies Nevada
Center for Ethics and Health
Policy Nutrition Orvis School of Nursing School of Social Work Sanford Center

Orvis School of Nursing

The bachelor's program is designed to provide the high school graduate, as well as graduates of associate degree and diploma nursing programs, with the opportunity to obtain a baccalaureate degree in nursing. The bachelor's degree program is the basic preparation for professional nursing practice and leadership positions in nursing. The CNS and general master options can be completed in four semesters of full time study or on a part time basis. The FNP option can be completed in two, three or four years. The postmasters certificate options can be tailored to prior student course-work and takes 3-5 semesters to complete. The Master of Science Nursing program is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nurse Education. Upon completion of the program, clinical option graduates are prepared to work as Clinical Nurse Specialists, Case Managers or Family Nurse Practitioners and are eligible to take national certification examinations.

Mackay School of Mines

Offers fields of study in engineering, earth, and material sciences. This includes Geological Science, Mining Engineering, Metallurgical and Materials Science, and Chemical Engineering.

The Mackay School of Mines is a science and engineering college named for John W. Mackay, one of the four silver barons of the famous Comstock Lode in Virginia City, Nevada. When the university was opened more than 100 years ago, one member of the first graduating class was a mining engineer. Today the Mackay School of Mines is internationally renowned for its academic programs in the geological, geophysical and hydrologic sciences and chemical, geological, materials and mining engineering

The Judicial College

The Master of Judicial Studies (MJS) Degree Program is a unique enterprise in American judicial education. Founded jointly in 1985 by the University of Nevada, Reno, National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges, and The National Judicial College, the MJS degree program enables sitting judges at all levels of the American judiciary to integrate technical study of the judiciary with advanced knowledge in other disciplines. The major academic objective of the MJS degree program is to create, define, and develop a new academic field, Judicial Studies.

College Of Education

Counseling & Educational Psychology, CEP Graduate, Curriculum and Instruction, CI Graduate, Educational Leadership, and EL Graduate

Reynolds School of Journalism

One of the top ranked journalism schools in the nation, the Reynolds School of Journalism has graduated seven pulitzer-prize winners. The school has produced numerous outstanding journalists, but is not limited to the fine art of writing. The school also boasts a nationally recognized advertising program that has won numerous awards. The J-school has four "sequences" for aspiring journalist: advertising, broadcast, print, and public relations; and has produced seven Pulitzer Prize winners, including one for the recent Columbine tragedy.

The College of Education at the University of Nevada, Reno and the public school districts are cooperatively involved in a program to recruit diverse students into teacher education. The basic idea of the Dean's Future Scholars (DFS) Program is that before students can consider teaching as career, they must first believe that college is a possibility for them. Although a major goal of this program is to recruit students into teacher education, a more basic purpose is first to interest students in going on to higher education, and in particular, UNR.

Mackay Song

Where the Truckee's snow-fed waters,
Drop from the mountains crest
And the meadows meet the sagebrush,
By the sun cressed.
Cradled by the silver mountain
'neath the western blue,
Stands our noble Alma Mater,
Our Nevada U.

As the Miner, on the desert,
Prospect every place,
So Nevada seeks the future
With an upturned face.
Everywhere she gathers knowlege,
all that's good and true,
Gives she to her sons and daughters,
Of Nevada U.

We will ever live to serve her
Live to give our best,
Live to make our Alma Mater
Pride of all the West.
Let her praises wake the echoes,
While we pledge anew,
Hearts and minds and hands
And voices to Nevada U.

Tra-di-tions

- Traditions transmittal elements of a culture from one generation to another.

The Fremont Cannon goes to the winner of the Nevada Vs. UNLV game. The Fremont Cannon college football's largest and most expensive trophy - turns 30 when the University of Nevada travels to UNLV on Oct. 7. Nevada's two university football teams annually play for the right to house the mountain howitzer each season.

Today's cannon, which the Wolf Pack has held for 10 of the past 11 years, is a replica of a gun that accompanied Lieutenant John C. Fremont on his expedition through Oregon, Nevada and California in 1843-44.

Baller-Shot-Caller

We live in a society that is highly competitive. We compete to win but with a clear understanding that the success of any one person is the result of the effort of many. The success of our teams is a direct reflection of the dedication and effort of a group of individuals who focus their thoughts and actions toward the attainment of a common goal. Participation in intercollegiate athletics is a privilege, not a right. To earn that privilege, teamwork becomes a value that dramatically influences the success of each student athlete and their sport of choice.

The University's obligation to our student athletes, their families, our community, and the state of Nevada, is to support the educational objectives of all involved and insure a level of quality education and academic progress that will lead to success. The success of our athletics programs are important because they create a bonding within our university, and community, while giving our graduates a sense of pride which serves as a rallying point for people who share our same interest.

Record: 16-16 (as of April 12) WAC: 4-5

Super Powers

In his 20th season as skipper of the Wolfpack, Nevada headcoach Gary Powers earned his 600th career victory, with a win over Louisiana Tech.

Wolf Pack Football

2001 Wolf Pack Football

Nevada Wolf Pack Superlatives

Team Game Highs
 Rushes 56 at UTEP (Nov. 24, 2001)
 Yards Rushing 409 at UTEP
 Yards Per Rush 7.3 at UTEP
 TD Rushes 6 at UTEP
 Pass Attempts 53 at Boise State (Oct. 27, 2001)
 Yards Passing 565 at San Jose State (Nov. 10, 2001)
 Yards Per Pass 11.5 at San Jose State

TD Passes 3 vs Hawaii (Sept. 22, 2001)
 Total Plays 90 at Rice (Oct. 20, 2001)
 Total Offense 791 at San Jose State
 Yards Per Play 9.3 at San Jose State
 Points 48 at UTEP
 Sacks 6 vs Hawaii
 First Downs 32 at Rice
 Penalties 15 vs Hawaii

Usually Pack fans see Pack quarterbacks hurling the pigskin down the sideline on long pass plays. This year Nevada football fans tasted a different flavor of offense, as Pack freshman running-back Chance Kretschmer led the nation averaging 157.5 yards per-game rushing. Nevada's 3-5 WAC record, and an overall 3-8 record, was disappointing but with senior Zack Threadgill throwing the ball and the nation's top rushing back, who knows what will happen? Good luck in the NFL to David Neill and Cedric Pitman.

Wolf Pack Men's Hoops

2001-2002 Nevada Men's Basketball

Record	Overall	Home	Away
All Games	17-13	10-4	6-8
Conference	9-9	5-4	4-5
Non-conference	8-4	5-0	2-3

The Nevada Wolf Pack (17-13, 9-9) proved many doubters wrong in 2001-02. After being picked to finish eighth in the WAC Preseason Men's Basketball Coaches Poll and 10th in the WAC Pre-season Men's Basketball Media Poll, Nevada finished tied for fifth. Nevada advanced to the semifinals of the WAC Tournament after beating SMU 72-66 in the quarter-finals. Their regular season included a win over WAC regular season co-champ, WAC Tournament Champion, and NCAA qualifier Hawaii, as well as sweeping of conference opponent and NIT qualifier Fresno State. It was the Wolf Pack's best season since the 1996-97 club that finished 21-10 and advanced to the NIT second round. Nevada's six road victories in 2001-02 were one more than the previous three years combined and its 10 home wins were the most since 1997-98.

Broken Records

The 2001-02 squad inked the history books in several team categories. As a team, Nevada made more free throws (45 vs. Boise State) and attempted more free throws (61 vs. Cal. Northridge) than any team in Pack history. Against the Broncos, Nevada also set the record for free throws made in a WAC game, breaking the previous mark of 39 set by Utah vs. Arizona State during the 1974-75 season. The Pack also tied the mark of free throws attempted during a WAC game with 55 matching New Mexico's 55 against Wyoming during the 1965-66 season. Nevada made 644 free throws on the year, also a Nevada record. By scoring 94 points vs. Boise State, Nevada set the record for the most points by a Wolfpack team in a WAC game.

Pack Youth

The Pack received considerable contributions from a number of freshman and sophomore players. Nevada's two freshman, Kirk Snyder, and Kevinn Pinkeney, both played significant roles in the Pack's success this season. Snyder started 10 games, averaged 13.7 points and 4.6 rebounds for the season and led the team in scoring three times. Pickney played in 29 games averaging 3.2 points and 3.2 rebounds and picked up a double double (12 points and 10 rebounds) in a win at Rice.

Pack Women Honored

The University of Nevada women's basketball players Kate Smith and Laura Ingham were named to the All-WAC first team and All-Defensive team, respectively.

This is the second year in a row that Smith has been named to the All-WAC team. The junior led Nevada with 15.2 points and 6.9 rebounds per game.

Ingham, a transfer from Ohio State, earned her place on the All-Defensive team by averaging 2.74 steals per game.

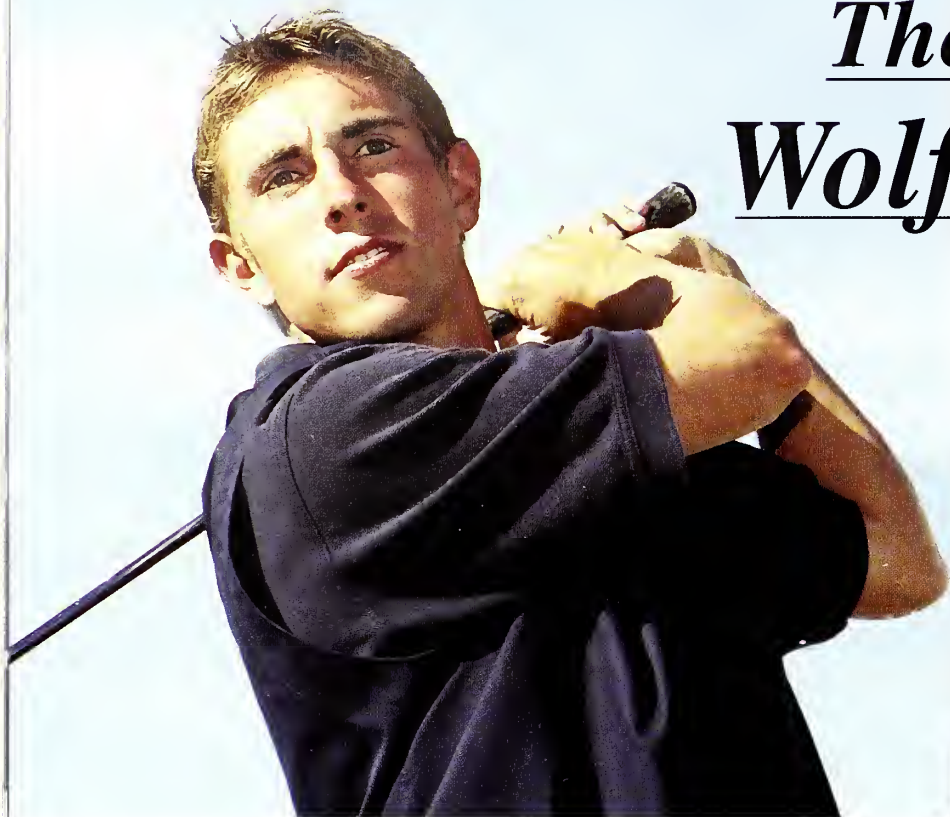

Kate Smith was named to the third team of the 2002 All-District VIII Women's Basketball Team. The junior from Reno, NV, was named to this team because of her academic excellence in Speech Pathology. The student-athletes need to have a minimum of a 3.20 cumulative grade point average and be a starter or key reserve.

The University of Nevada men's golf team started the season ranked 19th in the nation head-to-head standings by www.golfstat.com. In the individual rankings Nevada junior Sprague Kolp (Woodinville, Wash.) began the season ranked 41st with a 71.52 scoring average.

The Ladies: Wolf Pack Women's Golf

Nevada freshman Erin LaPlaunt was named the Western Athletic Conference Golfer of the Week Mar. 18, 2002, following an eighth-place finish at the Sam Houston Invitational. The Elk Grove, Calif., native helped Nevada take third in the 17-team field. LaPlaunt averages 80.1 per round and this was her first top-10 finish of the year.

Four members of the University of Nevada ski team were named to the All-Rocky Mountain Intercollegiate Ski Association Team. Katerina Hanusova, Tommi Viirrett, Mike Prado, and Quincy Young represented the Wolf Pack on the all-conference team. Hanusova won the 15K freestyle and placed second in the 5K Classic at the 2002 NCAA Championships. In two seasons at Nevada Hanusova has won three NCAA titles.

Wolf Pack Ski Team

Wolf Pack Rifle

University of Nevada freshman Ryan Tanoue unseated Alaska Fairbanks junior Matt Emmons to capture the 2002 NCAA Individual Air Rifle title. Tanoue's win snapped a three-year run of individual air rifle titles that had been won by Alaska Fairbanks shooters. Tanoue, from Honolulu and Emmons had identical scores of 392 but the tie breaker went to Tanoue as he hit 29 centers compared to 26 for Emmons. Tanoue's rounds were 97, 99, 97 and 99 while Emmons rounds were 100, 98, 100 and 94.

Wolf Pack Swimming

Nevada had their best finish in the WAC Championship by placing second behind nationally-ranked SMU. Third-year coach Mike Shrader took Coach-of-the-Year honors and Wolf Pack senior diver Kate Oiness, won the one-meter event. Earlier in the meet she took third in the three-meter board. Oiness shared Diver-of-the-Year honors with Maggie Roberts of Hawaii. Senior freestyler Kathy Echiverri finished 45th in the 50 - yard freestyle at the 2002 NCAA Championships held in Austin, TX. Echiverri, who captured the title in the 100-yard backstroke at the 2002 WAC Conference Championships, finished the 50 free with a time of 23.33.

Women's Track & Field

Athletes Honored

Nevada's Jenni Ashcroft was named the Western Athletic Conference women's first WAC track and field athlete of the week. Ashcroft became Nevada's first to be honored with this award. A product of Sheridan, Ore., Ashcroft cleared a height of 3.85 meters in the women's pole vault during the Wolf Pack's outdoor opener March 17. The junior placed second in a field of 19 at the Cal-Poly Invitational. The height was also a NCAA provisional mark for the 2001 WAC indoor pole vault champion.

Men: Brandon Carney, Nic Conroy, Ben Coyle, Cody Ghiggia, Chris Gunckel, Curtis Jones, Josh Leuthold, Zeb Nomura, Elliot Sparkman, Jordon Trice, Brian Williams

Coach: Joe Zelk

The U of N squad has competed in UCA's National College Cheerleading Championships as finalists in 1999, and 2000. We have competed in the finals for partner stunting in 1999 and 2000 as well. We have competed in the USA partner stunt competition from 1999-2001. U of N's dance squad competed in Orlando, FL for the UDA competition in 2001.

The U of N Cheer Program is recognized as a spirited, physically talented team. The squad also assists with vocal support and enthusiasm for some of the finest athletic programs in the nation. Our sports programs have a long legacy of success.

The cheerleaders regularly attend University Athletics Association and Alumni Association functions. They represent the University at many charitable and public relations' events. On the U of N campus, cheerleaders are recognized as some of the finest athletes in the University's sports programs. They are known for their intelligence and outgoing nature in the classroom, and as public relations ambassadors of the University of Nevada and the entire commonwealth of Nevada.

WHAT IS ASUN?

As your student government, the Associated Students of the University of Nevada (ASUN) is an integral part of the University community. ASUN is recognized by the president and the Board of Regents and provides many activities, events, and services for students. For example, ASUN uses the profits from the ASUN Bookstore to offer awards totalling more than $30,000 annually in scholarship monies, ASUN also purchases equipment for student use and improves student facilities. All undergraduates are automatically members of ASUN and are eligible to attend and/or use services they provide.

Matt Wolden, President

The ASUN President is the Chief Executive Officer, serving as the chair of the Executive Council, serving as the chair of the Fiscal Allocations Board. The president is also a member of all ASUN committees as well as many University boards and committees and serves as the official liaison between the undergraduates student body, the administration and the Board of Regents

Alicia Lerud, Vice President For Programming

The Vice President for programming (Flipside) acts as the chair of the Programming Board. This board is responsible for planning and coordinating various campus events. The Programming Board is dedicated to making the college experience more than all work and no play.

Dan Gallagher, Speaker of the Senate

The Speaker is the representative of the Senate to the Executive Council and the greater University community. The Speaker chairs all Senate meetings and oversees all Senate committees.

Todd Levy, Executive Vice President

The Executive Vice President serves as chair of the Clubs and Organizations Board and the Publications Board. The Executive Vice President serves as president following the incapacity or vacancy of the President's office. This position also serves as ASUN treasurer and a liaison between Senate and all ASUN-recognized clubs and organizations.

SENATE

The ASUN Senate had a roller coaster ride in 2001-2002. The Senate got off to a bit of a rocky start with the resignations of four senators early in the fall semester, one being the Speaker of the Senate. But the Senate persevered, appointing four new senators and electing a new Speaker of the Senate. From then on the Senate never looked back, tackling issues like athletic preregistration, tuition increases, and the University's strategic planning.

They also passed eight recommendations for issues such as the establishment of a hate crimes policy, research for debit card technology for university food services, and the autonomy and support of the women's studies program in the university's strategic plan.

Of the five resolutions they passed one included a bill that supported United States House of Representatives Bill H.R. 786, repealing the ban on federal financial aid to students with drug convictions. The Senate also resolved to change the clubs and organizations requirements to include the Title IX exemption, allowing fraternities and sororities to become ASUN clubs.

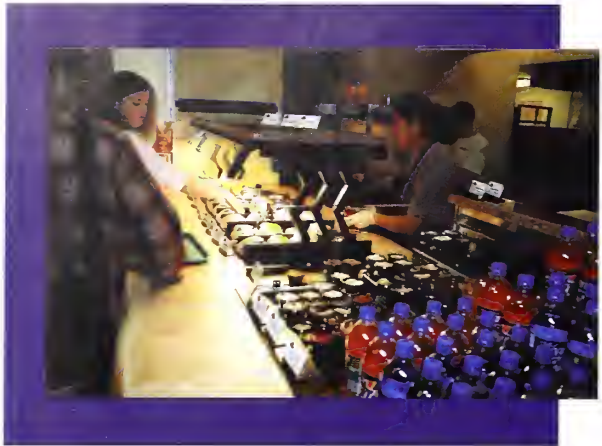

The school also passed nine constitutional amendments to the ASUN Constitution to be placed on the general ballot for the student population to vote on. Among the constitutional amendments passed by the student body was the creation of a new ASUN Vice President for Clubs and Organizations to begin in the 2003-2004 year. This amendment allows the current Executive Vice President to focus on the Publications Board.

The ASUN student government is composed of three branches: Executive, Judicial, and Legislative. All positions are filled by elected or appointed undergraduate students. Elections are held each March and appointments are ongoing throughout the year.

The Jot Travis Student Union (JTSU) is the center of student life. Renovated in 1996, some of the highlights of the union include: a student lounge with a separate television viewing area; state of the art audio/visual system; facilities designed to include disabled students; modern and easy-to-find meeting rooms; the dining commons; the new Wolf Perk coffee. House; and the ASUN bookstore.

ARTEMISIA

What is the Artemisia, and when is it going to be done? If I hear one more person ask me these questions I am going to scream. I know this publication has been missing for three years, however, it is one of the most important timeliness of our years spent at the University. I have been an active member of the University of Nevada for three years now, and I had no clue that this publication existed either. Can anyone imagine how hard it is to develop a publication that has not existed for three years, well, let me tell you that it is not the simplest task? There were many sleepless nights, missed classes, and social events that were taken out of my life. However, it was all worth it. This publication means a lot to me and I hope that it means something to all that look at it. I have put a tremendous amount of time and effort into this publication. In the beginning I was alone, it was the publications board and me. But, what kind of staff is that (thank you to the Pub-Board). Then, ASUN made a brilliant move; they hired Amy Koeckes as the publication advisor. Amy has been a savior. Her help and dedication kept me on track. I can honestly say that without her ASUN Publications would be in more turmoil then they are. Thank You Amy, for giving me hope when I thought there was none. Your subdued voice and calm words were much needed. smart and honest friend) you head. Thank you for always too high. You have helped you for being my friend and and took over the Assistant ever in dept to you. You are pictures added much needed are an amazing photogra-your work throughout the me a run for my money with believing I could do it. This CIAL!! Your insight, lead-mind-blowing. Thank you and James, thank you for all your work. You guys taught me about manual labor; it's just not for me. To the Sagebrush, it was fun, thanks for all your help. The Sagebrush looked great this year. Thank you to all that walked by my office and gave an extra hand (yes, Jesse Johnson this is you). Thank you Nicole Porter, you're the greatest. Thank you to the ASUN, the Clubs and Organizations, the Greek System, and the Athletic Department. Sara Smith you always inspire me, Thank You. To my girls, your inspiration and support throughout the years have not gone unnoticed. You all add so much to my life and the lessons that you have taught me will stay with me forever, thank you for all your support. Erin and Adi, thank you for putting up with all my crap. To all my friends in general everyone has a special place in my heart thank you for loving me for me. You are all irreplaceable. To my parents: Mom, Dad, and Susan. I am so lucky to have three people who love me so much. Your love, support, and words of encouragement make my life bright. Thank you for making my life so easily. Amy, you are my sun. You give me strength everyday to do the impossible. You have taught me about love, life, and how precious each moment is. Thank you for always watching over me. I love you and miss you! To anyone I missed I did not do it intentionally. If I had enough pages I would list all that made my time here great. The 2002 Artemisia was difficult. Am I happy its over? Yes, but am I glad I had this experience, definitely. I know everyone is a critic, and there are probably a couple mistakes, but we did the best we could with what time we had. However, I hope everyone remembers their time here and smiles. As President Lilly said the Artemisia is one of the most important publications on campus and should be supported. So let's take this to the "next level".

Radio Station Manager Sean McCoy lets the listening audience know about upcoming events on campus.

The radio station crew Rich Wood, Nick Cole, Casey Morgan and Sean McCoy

My name is Sean T. McCoy, radio station manager, and I'd like to be the first person to introduce you to WolfPackRadio.Com. It is a brand new Internet streaming radio station built by Nevada students, for Nevada students. This project has many possibilities and with your support and input, it can be one of the greatest Nevada endeavors ever. And that's without comparing it to the Fire Science Academy.

WolfPackRadio.Com has been three years in the making, and the path leading to the stream has not been easy. The idea for WolfPackRadio.Com was kicked around several years ago, but back then the group had no intention of putting it on the Internet. It was supposed to be on the radio. I know because I went to one of the very first meetings. My biggest concern then, as it is now, was finding an available frequency to broadcast on. No one else thought that was a necessary step at the time. So a year later, after the group had a budget and a building, they did the study and found that there wasn't anything available. Unfortunately, none of them knew anything about licensing or bandwidth either. Initially, the server for WolfPackRadio.Com would have only supported ten users before crashing. Now it can support over 1,500 simultaneous users, without any lag.

As it is in any medium, there are certain drawbacks with online streaming. The biggest problem is our availability. Obviously you can only pick us up on your computers. And for now the only way to really listen to us is going to be on a cable modem, DSL or faster. We're currently working on building another stream that would cater directly to dial-up modems.

The Web site is in need of some changes and input, and we're working diligently on that I assure you. The only thing Nick hates more than eye-level coat hangers are empty links. If you have some ideas or suggestions for content on the website or the music selection you can contact us at WolfPackRadio@hotmail.com. You can also reach us on our request line at 784-7074. But if you want to come down and check out the studio, we're north of the parking garage on Sierra Street, just two doors down from the Sagebrush in apartment C. I know, they usually give letters to apartments that are real crappy, but our office looks great and we've even got our own shower. Did I mention the sleeper-sofa?

ASUN PROGRAMMING FLIP SIDE

The Programming Board consists of eight students selected at-large, plus the Speaker of the Senate as voting members. The Director of Publicity, Inkblot, and an advisor serve as non-voting members. There are eight programming committees in charge of planning and coordinating different types of events such as concerts, barbecues and lectures. The board makes decisions and takes into consideration the broad scope of events needed to provide our undergraduate student population with quality programming.

BRUSHFIRE

Editor Aaron Wells worked hard for his money so you better treat him right, ladies.

All work and no play makes Prozac come their way.

About the Brushfire

The Brushfire is a publication of the ASUN, the undergraduate student government of the University of Nevada. The Brushfire was first published in 1950, making this the 52nd edition of this continuing literary tradition.

Purpose:

ASUN Publications Board bylaw 510.1A:

The purpose of the Brushfire shall be to provide a medium for creative fine arts, not limited to literary, photographic, and other creative print media. Priority shall be afforded to contributing works of ASUN students.

Goal:

ASUN Publications Board bylaw 510.1B:

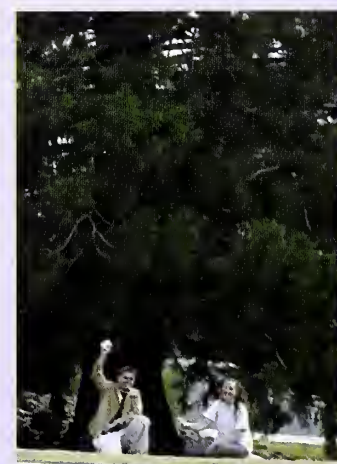

The goal of the Brushfire shall be to publish the best literary and/or visual work. The Brushfire should encourage freedom of artistic expression essential to the well being of the arts.

... and that's pretty much what we do. We'll publish anything you can put on paper, assuming it has artistic merit. And we do so gladly.

Are you the same people as the Sagebrush, or the Ablaze, or the student newspaper, or the quarterly senate update?

We get asked these sorts of questions a lot at the Brushfire. It so happens that many of the student publications at the University of Nevada have very similar names. The Brushfire is the ASUN-mandated student literary publication of UNR. The ASUN-mandated student newspaper of UNR is The Sagebrush. The quarterly senate update, mandated by the ASUN, is The Ablaze. It's easy to see how the confusion arises: If you set sagebrush ablaze, you get a brushfire. Things should be less confusing in the future because senate removed The Ablaze's funding this year, deeming it redundant with the fine senate coverage provided by The Sagebrush. So, just think of The Sagebrush as The Brush, and The Brushfire as The Fire. And don't think of The Ablaze at all.

On a similar, though more obscure note, the ASUN-mandated student yearbook is called Artemisia. This is the genus name for common sagebrush (artemisia tridentata).

Ellen Drewes

SAGEBRUSH

Letter from the Editor

The academic year of 2001-2002 will go down in the annals of times gone by as being one of the most tumultuous in history. From the horrible atrocities of September 11 to the wars raging in Afghanistan and the Middle East, humanity is standing at the crossroads, in a great many ways.

The University of Nevada is also at a crossroads, but thankfully for very different reasons. With the influx of Millennium Scholars and other students looking to Nevada for a quality education, this school is growing by leaps and bounds. This poses a number of issues to the administration, starting with the perennial parking dilemma and ending with strategic planning to address the future needs of students.

During all of this, the Sagebrush has fought long and hard to bring the most accurate information to the students of Nevada every Tuesday. From the Fire Science Academy debacle to the reactions of Nevada students after 9.11. The team that assembled here worked to represent YOU, the student, in every way, shape, and form.

Technological advances have assisted us in taking the Sagebrush into the 21st century. Fully digital layout allowed us to do things the Sagebrush had never done before, such as bringing you full color photo essays from Burning Man, and four-color covers every week. Also launched in the year of our lord 2002 was the permanent home of the Sagebrush online, www.unrsagebrush.com, where students, faculty and parents interact the stories that effect you most.

The disastrous events of September 11 prompted the Sagebrush staff to action. Before noon on that fateful Wednesday, a cadre of people assembled to get your reactions to the days events, and to let you know where you could seek help if you needed it. That Special Edition of the Sagebrush hit newsstands on the Nevada campus before the dinner hour on that day, the first ever extra printed in the 108-year history.

All in all, the lessons that this newspaper have taught me are invaluable. While it is true that we may have had our growing pains, the 2001-2002 Sagebrush far exceeded my expectations of what a good college newspaper should, and can be. The road ahead is uncertain for all of us, as we graduate and move into the "real world." We will be judged not only by our performances past, but how we have learned from our mistakes to change the future. This is true of the Sagebrush as well, and I hope that from its infancy as a good college newspaper, future editors will strive to make this publication the best it can be.

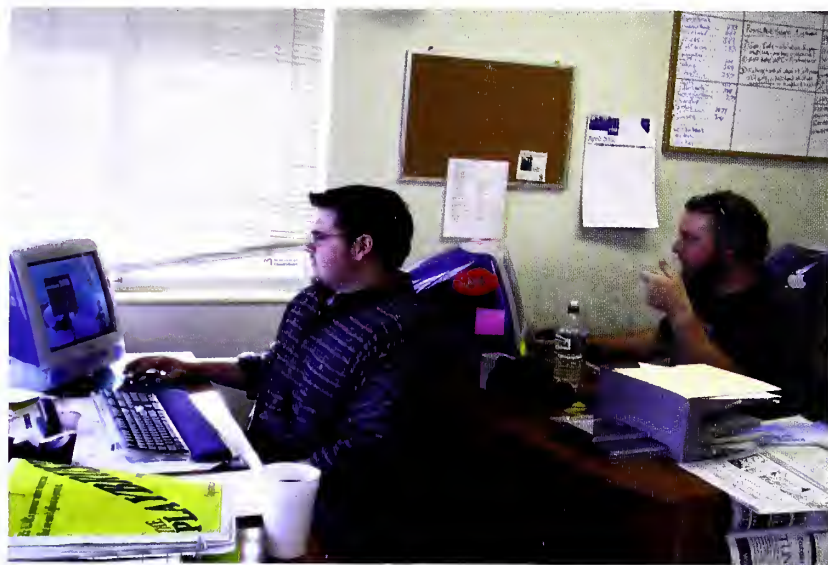

Benjamin Larson
Editor in Chief,

Fiscal solvency wasn't a problem for Ben Larson, as he lined his pockets early on in his tenure as Sagebrush Editor... Ha ha just kidding (Playbrush).

AGGIES

This year the College of Agriculture, Biotechnology, and Natural Resources started an ambassador program consisting of 12 outstanding students and two advisors. Our goal is to assist with recruiting, giving tours, and to be on-campus contacts for prospective students.

CAMPUS BIBLE FELLOWSHIP

Campus Bible Fellowship at U.N.R. offers students a unique opportunity to study the world's number one best seller... the Bible, and investigate the relevance of the Bible to their lives today. Meeting the challenges of campus life, C.B.F. offers a wide variety of activities and events to encourage friendship and spiritual growth

CAMPUS GREENS

The Campus Greens are an environmental and social justice action group seeking to promote creative approaches to problems such as pollution, nuclear madness, alienation from community and nature, and environmental, civil, and economic injustice. We believe that the knowledge, resources, and determination exist to meet the current local and global crisis

The Geoscience club is an organization that was created to provide it's members a chance to expand their knowledge of the physical world around them. Our members take part in various field trips throughout California and Nevada, as well as participate in lectures and socials.

GOLDEN KEY

Golden Key International Honor Society was founded in 1977. There are over 300 chapters in seven countries. International members hail from 151 countries. The chapter at UNR was established in 1990. The top 15% of juniors and seniors are invited to join. Every year family and friends are invited to an induction ceremony honoring new members. Golden Key's drive is community service. The UNR chapter participates in such activities as the highway clean-up. From the east side of Virginia Street from 9th Street to McCarren we help clean up litter. The Golden Key officers for 2001-2002 are: President-Susan Lawrence, Vice President-RoLayne McClure, Secretary- Heather Reagan, and Treasurer-Alicia Hansen

SOCIAL WORK ASSOCIATION

The purpose of the Undergraduate Student Social Work Association is to serve and help Social Work students, the general student population, the university, and most importantly, the community. We also help promote student and faculty interactions within the School of Social Work by serving as a liaison for the Social Work Students and providing feedback on the curriculum. Our yearly Make A Difference Day projects and Easter Egg Hunts for disabled persons of all ages are but two examples of the activities we plan each year.

Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship is a witnessing community that exists to glorify God by growing in love for God's people of every ethnicity and culture. A presence on campus since the 70's, IVCF welcomes anyone interested in investigating the truth and relevance of the power of Jesus. IVCF provides weekly bible studies throughout the dorms, large group meeting with live music, passionate speakers, unique programs and events for the university, and special conferences and training throughout the year.

INTERVARSITY CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

Our main goal is to prepare ourselves for the next level- the advertising industry. We tour local and regional advertising agencies, make contacts for internships, and build our resumes with professionals. Our main metropolitan base of support in this regard is the Bay Area. In our local area, we've constructed a professional partners program with the Advertising Association of Northern Nevada (A2N2). This is a program that allows students with a particular interest in the industry- i.e. account management, copywriting, art direction, etc. to team up with a professional for guidance through a hands on job shadow experience. In addition, we take on small advertising jobs for local businesses and student groups. All of our club's work is proudly displayed in the Reynolds School of Journalism.

SAGENS

Sagens is a women's community service organization whose roots extend from 1934 "Wise Women" who had enthusiasm, vitality, and an active interest in the welfare of others gathered together to help the University and their community. Today, we are as enthusiastic as ever! Throughout the academic year, we have donated food to the Food Bank of Northern Nevada, clothes to the Committee to Aid Abused Women (CAAW), and held our annual Halloween and Easter parties for the children of CAAW. We also visit the residents at Park Place, a local retirement community, on a weekly basis for conversation and activities, we help serve food at the Reno-Sparks Gospel Mission, donate our time and resources to raise money for St. Jude's Children's Hospital, and we 'Race for the Cure' in support of Breast Cancer research. We are sincere women gathering together to have fun and help lives. Those are Sagens!

GAMMA SIGMA ALPHA

Was founded to promote intellectual interaction between Greek students and the academic community. The purpose of the Society is to promote the advancement of education among Greeks; to instill a greater spirit of cooperation among Greek students and organizations and to encourage excellence in scholarship. By accepting membership into Gamma Sigma Alpha, students are recognized for outstanding Scholastic achievement. Gamma Sigma Alpha enables members to further personal achievements in academia, as well as to promote scholarship in the university community. The society strives for excellence and in doing so consists of the leaders of every Greek organization on the campus of the University of Nevada.

JUDICIAL PEER REVIEW

The Judicial Peer Review Board, J-Board for short, is made up of one representative from each hall. Their purpose is to hold students accountable for their behaviors and educate them to make better decisions. Representatives are trained to hold fair hearings for students who have allegedly violated Residence Hall policies.

J-Board members are sworn to keep information about hearings confidential. J-Board is an important part of the Residence Hall conduct system.

The Student Organization Staff (S.O.S) is a group of students who volunteer their time to help new students. We work in conjunction with the Office for Perspective Students to run New Student Orientation, and also we assist with Wolf Pack Prep, which is a program for high school students telling them how to get started at the University of Nevada. In addition, we spend a lot of time together as an organization getting to know one another, having fun, and reaching out to the community.

Welcome to the University of Nevada, Reno RFC Home page. Rugby has been a tradition at our university since the turn of the century, with a presence being traced all the way back to 1898. Since its rebirth in the early 90's, the Wolf Pack has become a competitive side in Division II of the prestigious northern California Rugby Football Union. We currently carry a roster of over 70 men and women and an alumni list numbering over two hundred. Members of the Wolf Pack have been represented at home and abroad, claiming positions on Division and Union All Star teams, the U.S. National Team, Division I Super League Club sides, and clubs in Australia and Ireland. The Wolf Pack is strong in traditions and performance on the field. In 1998 we completed the season winning the Division 2 title in the NCRFU, and have placed 2nd in the union in both 1999 and 2000. We function year round, playing both 15's and 7's. We welcome one and all to come join us.

RUGBY

HILLEL

Hillel's mission is to maximize the number of Jews doing Jewish with other Jews. Hillel actively seeks to engage uninvolved Jewish students on their own terms: to provide them with opportunities to do Jewish that are meaningful and appealing to them. Students are empowered to take responsibility for their Jewish identity, whether they wish to participate in a community service project, express themselves artistically, participate in a social event, engage in informal Jewish learning or attend religious services. Any student may participate in Hillel - no membership is required. Hillel is committed to a pluralistic vision of Judaism that embraces all movements.

ALLIANCE

The Alliance was established as an organization that would unite the ethnic and minority students on the UNR campus. The aim of the Alliance is to empower and provide educational, academic, and social support. It is a coalition of those students who share similar concepts about those issues confronting minority students on campus and support collaboration approach to address and resolve them.

QSU

QSU was founded in December of 1985. It was first called Gay and Lesbian Student Union (GLSU). As the diversity of the group grew the word Bisexual was added. The Gay Lesbian Bisexual Student Union (GLBSU) has continued to be a strong and viable presence, both on the University campus and in the community over the past fourteen years. In the fall of 1998, the GLBSU held a national Queer Theories conference. The academic conference took place over the course of a weekend, where many different people spoke on varying aspects of the queer culture and community. The event was very well attended by both people in the community and others, some from as far away as Australia. It is the intent of the GLBSU to have another Q Theories conference in the future and hopefully it will become a biannual affair. The Gay Lesbian Bisexual Student Union participates in many educational, political, community service, and social events each year. Examples of past, present, and future events include:

STUDENT AMBASSADORS

The University of Nevada, Reno Student Ambassador Organization consists of a group of outstanding university students who represent the university on and off campus. The group is designed to educate prospective students about UNR. With an appreciation for its rich history as well as its promising future, the Ambassadors dedicate time and effort to share their experiences with prospective students. Since an Ambassador must learn an extensive amount of information about the university and its programs and services, he/she has the ability to address many issues common among prospective students. Ambassadors can also share valuable information regarding the transition to college, since each has been in the situation before. It is the Student Ambassadors' duty to uphold high ideals and prestige held by this institution. An Ambassador represents the university at many different types of recruiting events like Fall Previews, high school visits, college fairs, and community events.

IFC

Panhellenic and IFC won the best program of the year award for their program 'Up Till Dawn'.

GREEKS: FROM ALPHA TO OMEGA

The Greek system provides students with a home away from home. Groups of people that become so close through the trials and tribulations of college that they become a family away from home as well. With the variety of fraternity and sorority houses to choose from it is not difficult for anyone to find a house they feel comfortable in. Fraternity/Sorority life provides students with an opportunity to participate in philanthropies, sports, and leadership activities that build character and fellowship. All Greek organizations provide the community with services that improve neighborhood and campus morale. Between fund-raising, charity events, and community service, the Greek system has enough members to make a significant impact on its surrounding community. Members of these organizations are provided with a way to interact with other Greeks. At socials, fraternity and sorority students come together to dress up crazy and mingle with each other in a positive environment. Annual fund-raisers include Tri Deltas "Frats at Bat" and Lamda Chi's "Watermelon Bust".

Pi Beta Phi

As the Fall 2001 semester has come and gone, Pi Beta Phi welcomed 38 members to our chapter. With more smiling faces, we were excited to begin the new school year with over a hundred active members. Throughout the semester, our girls have been seen all over campus excelling in academics, participating actively in intramurals, philanthropies and social events.

For the fourth year in a row Pi Phi has kicked some serious butt in Pi Kappa

Alpha's Annual Sorority Bowl. We look forward to playing many more intermural sports throughout the semester! Actively involved within the community, Pi Phi not only participates in their own local philanthropies, but openly supports all the houses. American Heart Association, for the second year has been one of our major local philanthropies. Also, last year's Hoops & Halos, our annual national philanthropy, was a great success. We are looking forward to this year as well.

Pi Kappa Alpha

The Gentlemen of Pi Kappa Alpha have been pursuing excellence at the University of Nevada since our installment in 1988. In that time, we have become one of the most recognized and acclaimed fraternities on campus. As we strive for quality and work to achieve our goals, our excellence has become evident. We manage to supercede many other houses that have been stationed on campus for many more years. On an every day basis, the members of this fraternity choose to be better men and they work for this everyday of their lives. We have managed to become the third largest house on campus in only a few short years. We have acquired a cumulative 2.64 grade point average, which is among the highest of all the fraternities at the university. We have been in the top three for GPA's for the last 10 years. We finished top five in sports for this past year and were undefeated at indoor soccer this year. Last but definitely not least, we have worked over 2,000 community service hours and we plan on working another 2,000.

TAU KAPPA EPSILON Fraternity

celebrated a landmark twentieth year at the University of Nevada this year. Chartered locally on February 13, 1982, TKE's Pi-Iota Chapter is the 469th member of Tau Kappa Epsilon International Fraternity, the world's largest social fraternity. In the two decades we've been in Reno, we have initiated 412 young men into the bonds of brotherhood and lifelong friendship. Our fraternity has produced many noteworthy alumni locally, including a number of law enforcement officers, business executives and entrepreneurs. More recently, we are proud to include among our alumni National Transportation Safety Board inspector Clinton Crookshanks, and local television sports anchor Bryan Samudio. Our active members continue to contribute to the campus and community through service. We recently raised over $1,000 for the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, earning two awards in recognition of our work. We also work on a semiannual basis with the Washoe County Parks and Recreation offices, assisting with events such as Easter egg hunts and Halloween parties for young children.

Last year, we were recognized as having the highest overall GPA among men's fraternities at UNR, and will continue to emphasize academics, community service and brotherhood as we begin our next twenty years at the University of Nevada.

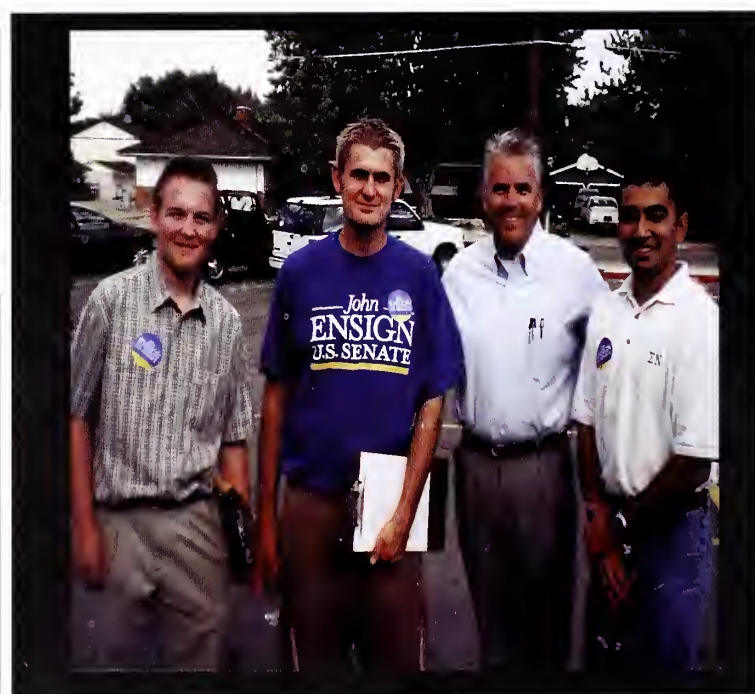

The 2001-2002 year was another busy year for the men of Sigma Nu. The activities stayed busy through many hours of studying and extracurricular activities. We were present and played a key role in the campaigning process and election of John Ensign, served many hours tutoring and mentoring underprivileged elementary school children at the Nevada Leadership Academy, and also kept up in sports and other various community-based athletics.

The structure of the house has never been better. New lighting fixtures brighten the halls and some major renovations being planned will leave the castle looking better than ever.

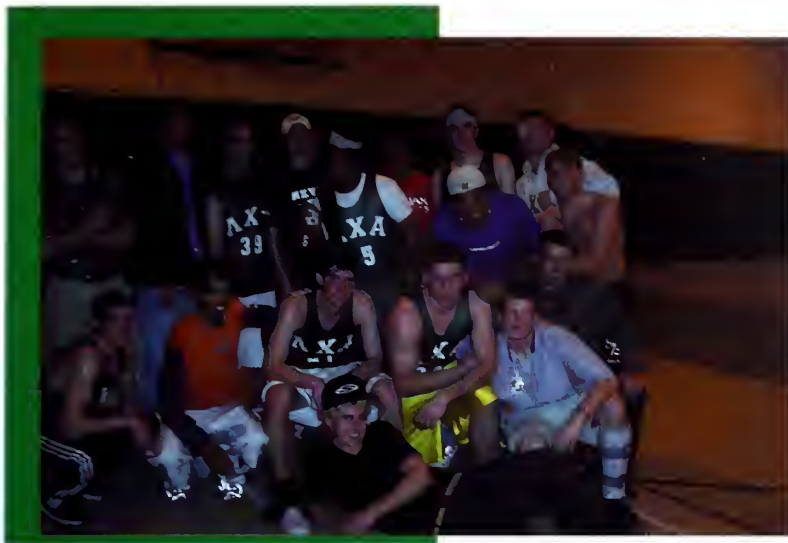

The Fall semester came and went faster than anybody could have expected. By the semester's end we initiated over 1700 members at our chapter, a highly respectable number in the fraternity's 88 plus years on UNR's campus. With another big Spring to keep up the spirit, the actives and alumni are proud of the hard work and rewards that went into the year.

As the year wound down and the summer begins the men of Sigma Nu plan on ending the year with a bang and having a long, busy summer. The annual White Rose trip to Rosarito Beach, Mexico allowed for some well-deserved rest and relaxation among friends and brothers. This summer, the fun will continue as road trips and backpacking excursions through Europe are only some of the journeys that we will be encountering before the school year returns.

ΣΝ

Kappa Lambda was formed in 1921 by a small group of men who felt the Greek System at UNR was lacking. The founding members were Lincoln Hall residents who eventually took over that building for a short period of time. Founded with a spirit of irreverence and camaraderie, Kappa Lambda quickly outgrew Lincoln Hall. The men of Kappa Lambda never took themselves very seriously; they thought of themselves as a foil to the hard nosed, hard hazing fraternities that were on campus at the time. Many people were curious about what the letters of Kappa Lambda meant and for what the fraternity stood for. The men of Kappa Lambda would always answer cryptically that the letters meant nothing at all, and people should quit asking.

In time, after much growth and progress, the men of Kappa Lambda decided it was time to take on a national identity. They found that the ideals of Lambda Chi Alpha most closely fit their own. In 1928 they applied to become a chapter of Lambda Chi Alpha, and in 1929 they were granted their chapter. With Letus Wallace as the first initiate and president, the Epsilon Iota Zeta (chapter) was installed on March 30, 1929.

The Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity at the University of Nevada emphasizes making its members' experience at college the best possible while also teaching responsibility and how to survive in the world outside the university. We are able to do this by upholding a balanced social, sport, scholastic, leadership, and community involvement program. We also expect our members to uphold a high standard for not only themselves and the fraternity, but also for the people around them.

The Lambda Chi Alpha house currently sits on 225 University Terrace and has been there since the birth of the fraternity in 1929. Two structures have occupied the land there. The second of two is the current structure, which was built in the early 50's. As you can imagine, it is in desperate need for renovation. With tremendous effort from our Alumni we have raised enough money to renovate the current chapter house. The plans for the house structure remain the same, but the interior will be totally renovated. The new chapter house will have state of the art equipment built into it, such as Ethernet hook-ups through the house and will house 27 members. It will also have three large bathrooms, compared to the one large and small, now. Of the three bathrooms, one will be strictly a ladies room. The work has started on the chapter house, as the fraternity members were asked to find other housing for the spring semester of 2002. The house will be ready for all the members to occupy in August.

ΛΧΑ

The ladies of Tri Delta are a diverse group of talented women who take pride in our campus and our community. Each semester we participate in highway and neighborhood cleanups. We have adopted a section of N. McCarran Boulevard. We enjoy participating in intramural sports on campus. This year we won the women's swim meet and took second place in football. Our members are also involved in many other campus clubs and fraternities such as Delta Sigma Pi, Greek Honors Society, Phi Alpha Delta, Sagens, Ad Club, Broadcast club, Jazz Band, Marching Band, Dance Team, and ACLU. Heidi Rentsch is the senator for the College of Arts and Science. Erin Post is the ambassador for the College of Agriculture, Biotechnology and Natural Resources. Melissa Cook was the 2001 Miss Reno Rodeo and Abbie Van Curen was the 2001 Miss Rodeo Nevada.

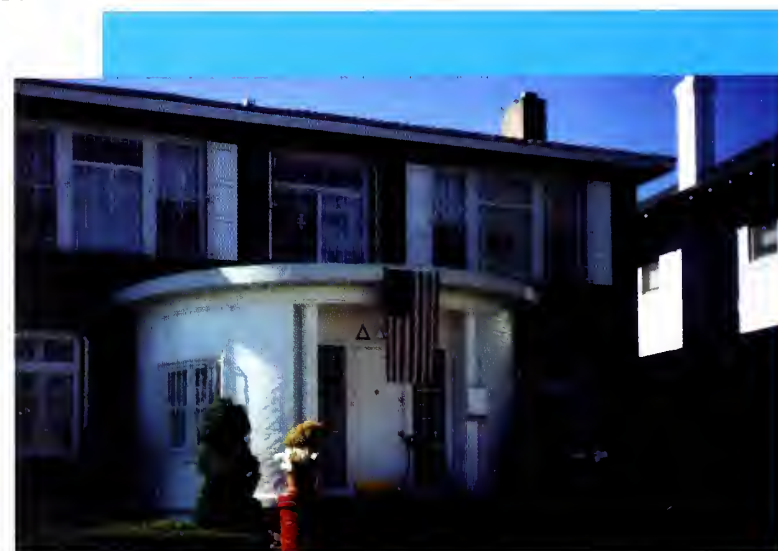

Our philanthropy is Childrens Cancer Charities. In the fall, we host a softball tournament with the fraternities called Frats at Bat. In the spring, we have a fashion show luncheon. This year we raised over $5000 for our philanthropy. During the holiday season we collected toys for Tots. We collected over 1000 cans of food during Homecoming week and our very own Miss Lindsay Oliver was crowned as the 2001 Homecoming queen. We also support United Blood Services and volunteer for KNPB channel 5. Throughout the year we have many social events. We have a themed dance in the fall and a formal dance in the spring. We also have several themed social events with fraternities each month. We have roller skated, ice skated, sledded, barbecued, watched movies and dressed in many hilarious costumes. We have a great time together!

The ladies of Tri Delta take great pride in academic success. Our members are pursuing degrees in a variety of majors including, biology, business, education, speech pathology and audiology, political science, and journalism. Academically, we have eight members with a 4.0 and four members with a 3.9 cumulative GPA. Tri Delta is looking forward to another great year at UNR!

The Delta Chi Fraternity was founded on October 13, 1890 at Cornell University, Ithaca, New York, as a law fraternity. Expanding to UNR in 1989, the colony flourished, becoming a chapter in 1992. Our brotherhood is one of the most diverse on campus. We offer our members leadership opportunities, sorority socials, athletic competition, and a chance to participate in a number of charity fund-raising and philanthropy events. Viva La Delta Chi!

At Kappa Alpha Theta Fraternity we provide growth and leadership opportunities for young women all the while promoting academic excellence. The intellectual ambition of the Fraternity is the attainment of highest scholarship. The social aim of the Fraternity is to exercise the widest influence for good. The moral aim of the Fraternity is the standard of love. Our symbol is the kite-shaped badge; our colors are black and gold and our flower is the black and gold pansy. This year the Beta Mu chapter of Theta has 110 active members during the 2001 school year Theta was selected as the best sorority chapter.

Theta maintains the highest GPA among sororities for the 14th consecutive semester. Ten Theta members were inducted into Golden Key International Honor Society. Four of the officers of Gamma Sigma Alpha, the Greek honor's fraternity, are Theta's while nine of our members were initiated into the society. Our philanthropy is CASA, court appointed special advocates, an organization that gives children a voice in court. At our second annual Lover's Lane at Arrow Creek golf course, we raised more than $2,700 for CASA. Theta also excels in sports. We won the 2001's sorority bowl and we were the intramural football and basketball champions.

2001-2002

The men of Sigma Phi Epsilon strive to find and build better men for tomorrow. Sigep is the largest fraternity nationwide with over 200,000 members and alumnus. Sigep, it's name for short, uses the Balanced Man Project to development college men to become gentlemen with the values of Virture, Diligence and Brotherly Love. The UNR chapter of Sigep, Nevada Alpha had a great year in 2001-02. Coming into the fall semester with the 2000-01 "Best Chapter," award, Sigep started the year on a roll. After fall rush and sorority socials the members of Nevada Alpha could proudly claim they indeed were a strong Sigep chapter both on campus and nationally. Sigma Phi Epsilon at UNR is looking to expand and grow with the prestigious values and ethics it holds within it's members.

From T.H.P.O to Nevada, our tradition is rich at the University of Nevada-Reno, as well as nationwide. Over 230 SAE chapters may be found worldwide. With 255,000 initiated men in our brotherhood, we are the largest Fraternity in the world. We have existed at UNR since 1917 and have been a dominant part of the university since. We look forward to passing on the tradition of leadership, brotherhood and our ritual to a select group of highly motivated young men. Men who seek the common bond that can only be found as member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Sigma Alpha Epsilon is based upon a simple statement, that each brother learns verbatim and refers to as a standard of conduct throughout his life.

This statement is:

"The True Gentlemen..."

The True Gentleman is the man whose conduct proceeds from good will and an acute sense of propriety, and whose self-control is equal to all emergencies; who does not make the poor man conscious of his poverty, the obscure man of his obscurity, or any man of his inferiority or deformity; who is himself humble if necessity compels himself to humble another; who does not flatter wealth, cringe before power, or boast his own possessions or achievements; who speaks with frankness but always with sincerity and sympathy; whose deeds follow his word; who thinks of the rights and feelings of others rather than his own; and who appears well in any company, man with whom honor is sacred and virtue safe.

A T Ω

The Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity has enjoyed a very exciting and prosperous 2001/2002 year. The chapter house had $150,000 renovation over the summer before the beginning of our Fall 01' semester. The active members returned to a like-new house, with new flooring, plumbing, electricity, appliances in the kitchen, and a laundry area. We've enjoyed the installation of phone lines in all the rooms and the comfort of new mattresses. Everyone couldn't be happier with the improvements to our beloved house. We had a successful rush campaign this year initiating six new members in the fall and expecting five more in the spring. We have high hopes for a even better fall in 2002. The house has taken a very active part in the community this year with our yearly "Feed the Homeless" Thanksgiving dinner where we fed and helped over 75 homeless and needy individuals. We have also taken an active part on campus taking second for Homecoming house. ATO looks forward to another great year at UNR and strives to raise the bar for Greek members on campus.

Delta Gamma

Delta Gamma was founded around Christmas in 1873 at the Lewis School in Oxford Mississippi. After being snowed in for break our three founders Anna Boyd Ellington, Eva Webb Dodd, and Mary Comfort Leonard started our Women's Fraternity.

The Eta Iota Chapter of Delta Gamma is proud to be the newest sorority on campus with 88 initiated members. Throughout our first year we have been working extremely hard on the organization of our chapter, setting up fun socials and dances, as well as becoming familiar with Greek Life through the Panhellenic Council.

Our executive officers include President Ciara Cavin, VP Programming Vanessa Harms, VP Social Standards Erica Onyeagbako, VP Member Education Ericka Sjoerdsma, VP Membership Tara Grubaugh, VP Finance Catrina Arnold, VP Foundation Amy Reagan, VP Panhellenic Loni Kirk, and VP Communications Jaime Milner.

Delta Gamma is a women's fraternity that was founded in 1873 and is based on lasting friendships and the promotion of a positive school, community, and country environment. Our fraternity colors are bronze, pink, and blue and our symbol is the anchor.

Our national philanthropy project is Service for Sight. Through this organization we help fund schools for the blind, donate countless hours to helping the visually impaired, and raise money for any sight related needs. We are very proud to announce that nationally Delta Gamma has funded four schools for visually impaired individuals.

Commencement

"How did this day come so quickly", or "I thought today would never come," either way it is here. Congratulations to the class of 2001-2002 you all made it! Take all you have learned in your "higher education" and use it to change the world. You all worked hard for this day and we at UNR are all proud of your accomplishments.

UNR

And the Seniors are Going, Going, Gone

A friendship starts with a single instance where individuals become acquainted. That relationships soon grows into much more and a strong friendship bond is formed. From long talks over numerous pitchers of beer to life altering instances the friends you made at UNR will be your friends forever.

Matt Wolden, ASUN President and Carlos Ledon GSA President represent the student body at Winter Commencement .

Congratulations to the graduating class of 2001-2002 from ASUN and Alumni Association

Dear Family & Friends of the Class of 2002,

It is our pleasure to extend our warmest congratulations to the graduating class of December 2001 and May 2002 at the University of Nevada, Reno! We rejoice with you and congratulate you as you come to a successful completion of your college years. You now reap the fruits of your arduous and persevering application to a task set by yourself, for yourself.

As you savor the satisfaction of success, please keep in mind your importance to this community. Among the many benefits that the University of Nevada provides to the Truckee Meadows, perhaps the most important are the well-rounded professionals who either continue their education here or matriculate into the diverse work force provided in the Reno-Tahoe area.

It is our hope that you continue to embrace the future of the City of Reno and perhaps one day raise a family of your own who can enjoy the many benefits of Northern Nevada living. Until then, enjoy the moment! Well done!

The Griffin Family,

Jeff, Marna, Josh & Sarah

What Now?

Now that your time here is over what will you do? Your normal routine is done with. Your days will no longer be starting at One O'Clock and you will have to get a real job. How will all of you cope with such a dilemma? Take it with great stride and go out and make your mark on the world. Share your knowledge and experiences with the world because it needs your insight.

Year in Review

This school year has been eventful, to say the least. Many major world events have occurred since we began school in August and there are many more to come.

So here is the 01-02 school year in a nutshell!

Nevada Politics

Yucca Mountain

Kenye Chinn vetoed the bill that would allow nuclear waste to be stored in Nevada. The problem with a nuclear waste dump in Nevada, is the transportation of the nuclear waste through our cities and on our highways. So for the time being nuclear waste will stay out of Nevada.

*Nevada denies Tyson request for

Campaign Finance Reform

The bill that creates public funding for candidates that run for office. This bill is a remarkable step closer to equality for America because no longer will only wealthy individuals be able to afford a good campaign.

Nevada Senator Harry Reid, the second most powerful man in Congress

After a strange turn of events in the Senate, the Democrats became the majority party. This occurred when the previous Majority Whip leader Jim Jeffords (R-Vermont) decided to change his party from Republican to Independent making Harry Reid (D-Nevada) the new Majority Whip leader.

Marijuana becomes a Misdemeanor

In one fell swoop, Nevada lawmakers have taken a giant stride away from some of the nation's toughest marijuana laws and voted to implement the nation's newest medical marijuana program. The single bill combines the disparate issues of medical and recreational marijuana use into one marijuana law reform package. Under current Nevada law, possession of any amount of marijuana for any reason is a felony offense, although it is usually plea-bargained down to a misdemeanor.

Northern Nevada's own subculture

Trying to explain what Burning Man is to someone who has never been to the event is a bit like trying to explain what a particular color looks like to someone who is blind. Burning Man is an annual event that takes place in the Black Rock Desert at the end of August. It is artistic expression of culture that you must experience.

Second tower falls.

12:15 p.m.: The Immigration and Naturalization Service says U.S. borders with Canada and Mexico are on the highest state of alert, but no decision has been made about closing borders.

12:30 p.m.: The FAA says 50 flights are in U.S. airspace, but none are reporting any problems.

1:04 p.m.: Bush, speaking from Barksdale Air Force Base in Louisiana, says that all appropriate security measures are being taken, including putting the U.S. military on high alert worldwide. He asks for prayers for those killed or wounded in the attacks and says, "Make no mistake, the United States will must down and punish those responsible for these cowardly acts."

1:27 p.m.: A state of emergency is declared by the city of Washington.

1:44 p.m.: The Pentagon says five warships and two aircraft carriers will leave the U.S. Naval Station in Norfolk, Virginia, to protect the East Coast from further attack and to reduce the number of ships in port. The two carriers, the USS George Washington and the USS John F. Kennedy, are headed for the New York coast. The other ships headed to sea are frigates and guided missile destroyers capable of shooting down aircraft.

1:48 p.m.: Bush leaves Barksdale Air Force Base aboard Air Force One and flies to an Air Force base in Nebraska.

Bush: "Attacks cowardly."

2 p.m.: Senior FBI sources tell CNN they are working on the assumption that the four airplanes that crashed were hijacked as part of a terrorist attack.

2:30 p.m.: The FAA announces there will be no U.S. commercial air traffic until noon EDT Wednesday at the earliest.

2:49 p.m.: At a news conference, Giuliani says that subway and bus service are partially restored in New York City. Asked about the number of people killed, Giuliani says, "I don't think we want to speculate about that — more than any of us can bear."

3:55 p.m.: Karen Hughes, a White House counselor, says the president is at an undisclosed location, later revealed to be Offutt Air Force Base in Nebraska, and is conducting a National Security Council meeting by phone. Vice President Dick Cheney and National Security Adviser Condoleezza Rice are in a secure facility at the White House. Defense Secretary Donald Rumsfeld is at the Pentagon.

3:55 p.m.: Giuliani now says the number of critically injured in New York City is up to 200 with 2,100 total injuries reported.

4 p.m.: CNN National Security Correspondent David E. Sanger reports that U.S. officials say there are "good indications" that Saudi militant Osama bin Laden, suspected of coordinating the bombings of two U.S. embassies in 1998, is involved in the attacks, based on "new and specific" information developed since the attacks.

4:06 p.m.: California Gov. Gray Davis dispatches urban search-and-rescue teams to New York.

4:10 p.m.: Building 7 of the World Trade Center complex is reported on fire.

New York Mayor Giuliani

4:20 p.m.: U.S. Sen. Bob Graham, D-Florida, chairman of the Senate Intelligence Committee, says he was "not surprised there was an attack (but) was surprised at the specificity." He says he was "shocked at what actually happened — the extent of it."

4:25 p.m.: The American Stock Exchange, the Nasdaq and the New York Stock Exchange say they will remain closed Wednesday.

4:30 p.m.: The president leaves Offutt Air Force Base in Nebraska aboard Air Force One to return to Washington.

5:15 p.m.: CNN Military Affairs Correspondent Jamie McIntyre reports fires are still burning in part of the Pentagon. No death figures have been released yet.

5:20 p.m.: The 47-story Building 7 of the World Trade Center complex collapses. The evacuated building is damaged when the twin towers across the street collapse earlier in the day. Other nearby buildings in the area remain ablaze.

5:30 p.m.: CNN Senior White House Correspondent John King reports that U.S. officials say the plane that crashed in Pennsylvania could have been headed for one of three possible targets: Camp David, the White House or the U.S. Capitol building.

6 p.m.: Explosions are heard in Kabul, Afghanistan, hours after terrorist attacks targeted financial and military centers in the United States. The attacks occurred at 2:30 a.m. local time. Afghanistan is believed to be where bin Laden, who U.S. officials say is possibly behind Tuesday's deadly attacks, is located. U.S. officials say later that the United States had no involvement in the incident whatsoever. The attack is credited to the Northern Alliance, a group fighting the Taliban in the country's ongoing civil war.

6:10 p.m.: Giuliani urges New Yorkers to stay home Wednesday if they can.

Stunned onlookers

6:40 p.m.: Rumsfeld, the U.S. defense secretary, holds a news conference in the Pentagon, noting the building is operational. "It will be in business tomorrow," he says.

6:54 p.m.: Bush arrives back at the White House aboard Marine One and is scheduled to address the nation at 8:30 p.m. The president earlier landed at Andrews Air Force Base in Maryland with a three-fighter jet escort. CNN's John King reports that Bush arrived earlier by motorcade from a "secure location."

7:17 p.m.: U.S. Attorney General John Ashcroft says the FBI is setting up a Web site for tips on the attacks: www.freenfbi.gov. He also says family and friends of possible victims can leave contact information at 800-331-0075.

7:02 p.m.: CNN's Paula Zahn reports the Marriott Hotel near the World Trade Center is on the verge of collapse and says some New York bridges are now open to outbound traffic.

WTC devastation

7:45 p.m.: The New York Police Department says that at least 78 officers are missing. The city also says that as many as half of the first 400 firefighters on the scene were killed.

8:30 p.m.: President Bush addresses the nation, saying "thousands of lives were suddenly ended by evil" and asks for prayers for the families and friends of Tuesday's victims. "These acts shattered steel, but they cannot dent the steel of American resolve," he says. The president says the U.S. government will make no distinction between the terrorists who committed the acts and those who harbor them. He adds that government offices in Washington are reopening for essential personnel Tuesday night and for all workers Wednesday.

9:22 p.m.: CNN's McIntyre reports the fire at the Pentagon is still burning and is considered contained but not under control.

9:57 p.m.: Giuliani says New York City schools will be closed Wednesday and no more volunteers are needed for Tuesday evening's rescue efforts. He says there is hope that there are still people alive in rubble. He also says that power is out on the westside of Manhattan and that health department tests show there are no airborne chemical agents about which to worry.

10:49 p.m.: CNN Congressional Correspondent Jonathan Karl reports that Attorney General Ashcroft told members of Congress that there were three to five hijackers on each plane armed only with knives.

10:56 p.m.: CNN's Zahn reports that New York City police believe there are people alive in buildings near the World Trade Center.

11:54 p.m.: CNN Washington Bureau Chief Frank Sesno reports that a government official told him there was an open microphone on one of the hijacked planes and that sounds of discussion and "duress" were heard. Sesno also reports a source says law enforcement has "credible" information and leads and is confident about the investigation.
